SMART SOLUTIONS FOR SMART CLIENTS

CLAUDIA BERKEFELD DIRECTOR LONDON OFFICE

With the opening of our office in the UK, Claudia Berkefeld has taken on the role as a director of our London branch.

Claudia has extensive experience in corporate office design. Since joining Evolution Design in 2008, she has been responsible for the workplace concepts of numerous projects, including the iconic Google Zurich and Google Tel Aviv offices, Unilever Hub, PULS headquarters in Munich, TeamBank headquarters in Nuremberg and HB Reavis office in London.

Claudia was also in charge of developing and elaborating corporate architecture guidelines of the Freudenberg Group.

With her broad skill set, ranging from developing designs to project coordination and implementation, Claudia's experience and talent means that she's able to pay attention to the details while remaining focused on the successful delivery of the overall project.
